Leading Out of Drama® Facilitator Certification

Struggling with instead of struggling against each other, creating sustainable solutions together!

Leading Out of Drama® or LOD for short and the concept of Compassionate Accountability were developed by Next Element Consulting LLC, Kansas, USA.

Certified LOD Facilitator

The certification qualifies you to be a dialogue and process facilitator in workshops and consultations with the LOD modules 'Conflict and You', 'Basic DRA' and the 'Leader's Application Packs' (currently: Meetings, Performance, Connections and Apologies) with your clients.

Contents of certification are:

- understand and teach the Basic Drama Resilience Assessment (DRA)
- understand and work with the 'Conflict and You' materials
- understand and work with the 'Leader's Application Packs
- practical demonstration of working sequences from all the above topics
- working with MyNE (program/seminar administration for LOD)
- Dealing with NEOS, the system developed by Next Element to measure self-efficacy of training interventions.

Duration of certification:

incl. all mentioned contents: 2 days

Recommended prerequisite: LOD Core Concepts

Language in training and certification: English or German (depending on the participants)

Number of participants: min. 2, max. 6

Registration Deadline: 4 weeks before the certification date

Your Invest: 2.250,00 EUR excl. VAT

(price includes: 2-day training and certification process by Leading Out of Drama® provider, all training materials, Next Element certification fee [US$1,000], official listing on Next Element and key!4c website, facilitator access to MyNE).

Notes: All LOD Facilitator materials ('Basic DRA', 'Conflict and You', 'Leader's Application Packs') are available in German and English. Dutch and French are in preparation. All other documents are in English. Next Element requires a minimum purchase of LOD materials to maintain certification. The minimum annual purchase is currently US$500 (payable annually in advance, from the date of certification).
